Summer is a beautiful time of year for Salem County! Farm fields and gardens are full of growth and there are plenty of recreational activities to pursue: kayaking and fishing the Delaware, spending time on Oakwood Beach, attending the the rodeo and the Salem County Fair. Local produce is bountiful and there is no shortage of homegrown food. I have already eaten my fair share of tomato sandwiches!

This summer you can expect the usual beauty of Salem County, along with so many new and returning events. We are so excited to be welcoming Revolution Rail Company in June, providing a 6 mile rail bike loop in Woodstown. Follow along on our social media accounts for outdoor fun, the best ice-cream spots, and more ideas for summer fun this season! Download the PDF version of this newsletter and click on each image for more information.

New To Salem County!

SMS RAIL LINE

The SMS Rail Company and Revolution Rail Co. will be opening rail bikes on Father's Day Weekend! This will consist of a 6 mile trail crossing Oldman's Creek Trestle and Memorial Lake in Woodstown. Pedal down historic railroad tracks and enjoy the beauty of Salem County!

Later this year, SMS will be opening passengers rail cars to travel between Swedesboro and Woodstown. The company plans to be up and running by the end of the year and is excited to bring passengers into Woodstown for the winter Candlelight Tour! We are so excited for the tourism and recreation this rail line will bring to Salem County!

Stay tuned for future announcements!

History

A new series of brochures, highlighting Salem County Historical Societies and Historical Sites, was recently designed and developed by Graham Communications. The brochures highlight several sights including; Lower Alloways Creek Historical Society, Historical Society of Penns Grove, Carneys Point and Oldmans, Pennsville Township Historical Society, Salem County Historical Society, and Pilesgrove-Woodstown Historical Society.

Historical sites highlighted in the series include; Fort Mott, the Hancock House, and the Alloway Township History Museum.

Look for the display racks and brochures strategically located around the county!

The Legend of Daniel Boone
With Doug "Muggs" Jones

A man from humble beginnings in Colonial America who became a frontiersman, who became a legend.

Muggs has a passion for history and has been a reenactor since the 1990's. He also preserves the history from this period through film; specifically, the lives and skills of Colonial frontiersmen and longhunters.

As always, light refreshments will be served after the meeting

Farming

One of my favorite things about Salem County is its self-sufficiency. We are home to 170,835 acres of preserved farmland consisting of many family owned and operated farms, several which offer products direct to consumer. Pasture raised meats, organically grown produce, and so much more are produced for farm to table consumption. There is absolutely no shortage of high quality food here in Salem County.

Follow the links to find out how you can participate in all that our local farms have to offer!
