Special Project Budget Narrative

Discuss the projects finances. Explain how grant funds will be spent. Tell us how you arrived at the amounts entered in the expense and income categories you completed. Also explain why your requested amount and proposed budget is realistic and appropriate for the project presented. For example, if you are allocating $500 printing, describe the materials that will be printed (1,000 color brochures @.50/each). Also discuss how you came to your projected income totals.

Project Narrative

Please answer the following questions fully and in detail. Grant reviewers will use the information provided to evaluate the value of your project and determine an appropriate funding level. Please provide enough information to allow the panel to make a valid decision. Do not exceed 8 pages, 12pt. font.

1. Provide the mission statement and a brief history of your organization – when was it founded, what noteworthy things has it accomplished? What about your organization’s work is unique or exciting? If you are a municipal government or school, address how your history program figures within the larger scope of your work. If you are applying as an individual conducting research, and your affiliated organization has applied for a special project, you may leave this section blank.

2. Describe your project, its goals, purpose, activities, and content. Which of the NJHC priorities and concerns does it address? Demonstrate how it relates to New Jersey history. Provide sufficient information to demonstrate your knowledge and expertise regarding the content focus of your project. If a conservation project, describe the content of the collections to be conserved and their importance to the study of NJ history.

3. Explain why your project is important and describe its public benefit/value (education, preservation, entertainment, etc.). In other words, how will your project benefit the community?

4. Describe your intended audience/s. How many people do you intend to engage/reach with your project? What is the anticipated demographic composition of your audience? How do you intend to meet the needs of and engage with special constituents? (minorities, handicapped, seniors, etc.)

5. Who are the key staff/volunteers responsible for planning and implementing the project? What outside professional speakers, consultants, or services do you plan to engage for this project? Describe the qualifications of each participating individual to demonstrate why they are the best candidates to conduct work for this project. Be sure to attach biographies and resumes of key personnel and/or consultants.

6. What is your organization’s plan for publicity and marketing of this project? Note how and when you will credit the SCCHC and NJHC. You may reference past strategies for publicity and marketing and why they were effective in reaching and growing your audience.

7. Does your project address or relate to any contemporary issues?

8. Provide a timeline for your project. Include all stages of your project: planning, publicity, construction, printing, assembly, evaluation etc.

Additional Attachments

Be sure to attach:

1. Resumes/Bios of key staff and personnel
2. Support Materials (optional) – This refers to any additional materials that you feel could help support your project proposal (brochures, pamphlets, programs, flyers, data sheets, etc.)
3. Draft/Abstract – If you are applying as an individual for a research and publication project, please provide an outline, draft, or abstract of your proposed research/publication.
