Organizations must match their total requested grant amount by 0% through any combination of cash and in-kind expenses.

*Organization Cash Funds are funds that your organization is spending out of its own operating budget towards the project. If your total grant amount is $1,000, but your organization is spending an additional $200, this amount should be listed in the Cash column. Please list all additional expenditures.

In-Kind contributions are donated goods and services, for which your organization does not pay cash, but which have documentable cash value. An example of this would be the cash value of a volunteer's time. The current rate for volunteer time is _____. It is vital that you document your In-Kind contributions as it demonstrates the overall time, energy, and resources that have been put into this project.

Special Project Budget Narrative

Discuss the projects finances. Explain how grant funds will be spent. Tell us how you arrived at the amounts entered in the expense and income categories you completed. Also explain why your requested amount and proposed budget is realistic and appropriate for the project presented. For example, if you are allocating $500 for printing, describe the materials that will be printed (1,000 color brochures @.50/each). Also discuss how you came to your projected income totals.

Project Narrative

Please answer the following questions fully and in detail. Grant reviewers will use the information provided to evaluate the value of your project and determine an appropriate funding level. Please provide enough information to allow the panel to make a valid decision. Do not exceed 8 pages, 12pt. font.

1. Provide the mission statement and a brief history of your organization – when was it founded, what noteworthy things has it accomplished? What about your organization’s work is unique or exciting? If you are a municipal government, school, or non-arts organization address how your arts program figures within the larger scope of your work.

2. Describe your project, its goals, purpose, activities, and content. Which of the NJSCA priorities and concerns does it address?

3. Explain why your project is important and describe its public benefit/value (education, preservation, entertainment, etc.). How will your project broaden, deepen, and /or diversify participation in the arts?

4. Describe your intended audience/s. How many people do you intend to engage/reach with your project? What is the anticipated demographic composition of your audience? How do you intend to meet the needs of and engage with special constituents? (minorities, handicapped, seniors, etc.)

5. Who are the key staff/volunteers responsible for planning and implementing the project? What outside professional speakers, consultants, or services do you plan to engage for this project? Describe the qualifications of each participating individual to demonstrate why they are the best candidates to conduct work for this project. Be sure to attach biographies and resumes of key personnel and/or consultants.

6. How will you define success? What methods will you use to evaluate your project beyond attendance statistics? (surveys, independent reviews, etc.) How will your organization use this data?

7. What is your organizations plan for publicity and marketing of this project? Note how and when you will credit the SCCHC and NJSCA. You may reference past strategies for publicity and marketing and why they were effective in reaching and growing your audience.

8. Describe any noteworthy partnerships or collaborations on this project. Will you be engaging in any non-traditional partnerships?

9. Does your project address or relate to any contemporary issues?

10. Provide a timeline for your project. Include all stages of your project: planning, publicity, construction, printing, assembly, evaluation etc.

Additional Attachments

Be sure to attach:

1. Resumes/Bios of key staff and personnel
2. ADA Plan (if applicable)
3. Discrimination Policy (if applicable)
4. Support Materials (optional) – This refers to any additional materials that you feel could help support your project proposal (brochures, pamphlets, programs, flyers, data sheets, etc.)
